Spiro Cheriogotis Announces run for Mayor of Mobile

Mobile, AL, January 21, 2025 – Today, Spiro Cheriogotis (chair-uh-goddess) announced his campaign for Mayor of Mobile. The announcement came in the form of a video posted to social media.

In a statement, Spiro said, “The decision to run for Mayor is not without great sacrifice, but when I look at my four young children and think about their quality of life, their opportunities and their future, I know I can’t sit on the sidelines.

I certainly don’t have all the answers, but I’m willing to listen to my fellow citizens about their challenges and roll up my sleeves to find solutions. I’m looking forward to having that conversation with Mobilians over the next few months as we determine what’s next for our city.”

In 2018, Spiro was elected to serve as a District Court Judge for Mobile County, a role he has held with distinction for the past six years. His tenure on the bench has been marked by fairness, integrity, and an unwavering commitment to justice. After completing his first full term and in accordance with the Judicial Canon of Ethics, Spiro submitted his resignation from the bench to run for Mayor of Mobile.

Speaking on the city’s progress, Spiro said, “Projects like the new arena, Mobile International Airport, activating our riverfront and building the I-10 River Bridge have been decades in the making. Now that those things are underway, it is time for the next generation to take the baton, capitalize on the momentum and propel Mobile forward.

As the next generation of city leadership, we have a duty to see these transformational opportunities through to the finish line while working together to chart a course that will take the City of Mobile to the next level.”
